South Shore Orchestra TBA March, 7 pm

The South Shore Orchestra is an auditioned orchestra committed over the last 13 years to bridging musicians, audiences and communities to advance enjoyment and appreciation of orchestra music throughout the south shore region.

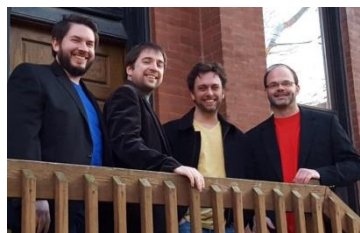

SSO loves performing Beethoven and Brahms, but also gets really excited about collaborations with contemporary composers and artists who come from all around the world, including such composers as Ana Milosavljevic, Michael Schelle and Miho Sasaki.

“We believe music inspires innovation and capital ideas, development and growth. Music brings communities together to share thoughts of understanding, equality, tolerance. Your entire perspective on life may be changed after hearing a single piece of music. Without a doubt, music remains a powerful force – and we are deeply passionate about it.”

The Northsiders Barbershop Saturday, March 10, 7 pm

Founded in 2013, The Northsiders is a high-energy award-winning foursome that has become the finest barbershop quartet in the City of Chicago! Their remarkable blend of voices take you back to old-time barbershop standards as well as doo-wop and contemporary faves with a bit of humor. They're sure to put a smile on your face!
